

AFTER MANY YEARS

The Work on the Hudson River Tunnel Is to be Once More Pushed.

ENGLISH MONEY TO THE RESCUE.

The Capital to Complete the Scheme Will Come From Abroad.

SOME RATHER ACTIVE OPPOSITION

OFFICIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.
NEW YORK, April 17.—D. C. Haskin, Chief Engineer and General Manager of the Hudson river tunnel, expects to be able to complete the tunnel itself with the $350,000 which has been raised in England by mortgaging the tunnel and everything appertaining to it. What Haskin is anxious to complete is in such a shape that the completion of the New York terminus will be a certainty.

Work will be resumed as soon as money is transmitted from England, which, however, judging from the delay that has already taken place, may not be for several weeks, and possibly months. Work was suspended on the tunnel, or rather tunnels, for there are two of them side by side, four years ago.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE.

About 1,500 feet of the north tunnel and 565 feet of the south tunnel are complete on the New Jersey side and on the New York side 150 feet of the north tunnel and 25 feet of the south tunnel are finished. As the length of the tunnel from shaft to shaft is 5,900 feet it will be seen that considerably over one-third of the north tunnel is complete, while less than 600 feet of the south tunnel is finished.

There remain 5,612 feet of tunnel to be finished. Although full of water, work on the tunnels may be resumed without much delay, as the water can be easily pumped out, while the machinery and shafts can be put in working condition. Mr. Haskin thinks that the north tunnel could be completed in 18 months and the south tunnel in about two years.

AN AVERAGE OF SEVEN FEET PER DAY.

It was made when the work was in operation, could be maintained. The tunnels could be carried on better simultaneously than separately.

SOME OPPOSITION.

As much as $2,000,000 in cash has been expended on the tunnels and the liabilities are at least half as much more. The reason why funds could not be got before was the opposition of the interests with which the tunnel would conflict. As it proposes to be a conduit for all the railroads, terminating on the west bank of the Hudson, it is naturally opposed, Mr. Haskin says, by the only railway which now has stations in New York, and it is also opposed by the ferry company.

THERE WOULD BE LOCAL TRAINS RUNNING THROUGH IT EVERY FIVE MINUTES.

Mr. Haskin has as yet no idea where the tunnel will crop out in this city, and he would not let the secret out if he did. Already a man has bought property on the corner of the street with Morton street, at the foot of which the New York shaft is situated, in the expectation that the terminus will be thereabouts and that the tunnel company will have to pay him figures for the land.

AN ANDOVER DECISION.

Trustees Can be Called to Account for Acting Upon Their Convictions.

SALFORD, Mass., April 17.—Justice Field, of the Supreme Judicial Court, rendered an important decision in the Andover heresy controversy to-day. He handed down a judgment sustaining the demurrer in the case of Joshua N. Marshall and Julius H. Seelye. The court says that it does not see why any material question could not have been tried on the appeal in the case of Prof. Smyth if the parties therein had desired it; that the corporation plaintiff has heretofore accepted considerable property in trust to be administered subject to the supervision of the Visitors, and until the present time has acquiesced in the provisions which created the board, and it does not appear that any other than the plaintiff corporation doubts the validity of the provisions of the trust or the constitutionality of the statute of 1824.

IT APPEARS THAT THE VISITORS HAVE NOT SUSTAINED THE CHARGES AGAINST THE DEFENDANTS.

Churchill, Tucker, Harris and Hinchey, but only against Prof. Smyth, and he has appealed. The action of the Visitors is of no effect upon the status of the others, and the validity of their action against him will be determined by the full court. The trustees can, if they think best, take the responsibility of acting upon their convictions, and other persons interested can call them to account.

BASE BUT PRECIOUS.

A Reported Silver Discovery Turns Out to be One of Iron Ore.

It turns out, of course, that the report of a silver discovery on Puckett creek, near Pannasus, is a canard. But a Pittsburgh analytical chemist, who, with a geologist, is familiar with the strata up the Allegheny Valley, states that Plum township, in this county, is full of most excellent iron ore. The only difference is that the ore is so far back in the country from the Allegheny that it is not so easily accessible, he believes iron furnaces would find a harvest field there. It is said the silver ore hoax was started to draw attention to these quarries of iron.

NEW FOR THE BANQUET.

The American Club is ready to dine. The committee in charge of the Grant banquet have completed all the arrangements. The plan of seats was presented, and 200 out of the 200 were taken at once. The menu, programmes and souvenirs are exceptionally fine.

Kid Gloves are not necessarily as expensive as some people find them. A store that sells 20 pairs where a smaller dealer sells one, can afford to give much better goods for the same price, or the same goods for a much lower price. That is just what we do.

And once in a while the large dealer gets hold of a lot of gloves that the importer is willing to sell for a fraction of their value. We had a bit of luck like that the other day. And right below here we give you the result:

165 dozen Ladies' 4-button Kid Gloves, plain backs, at 48c a pair, worth 60c.

175 dozen Ladies' 4-button Kid Gloves, embroidered backs, 48c a pair, worth 75c.

98 dozen Ladies' 5-button Kid Gloves, embroidered backs, 48c a pair, worth 80c.

200 dozen Ladies' 4-button Kid Gloves, embroidered backs, at 75c, worth $1. These are our old favorites which we have been selling at the same price for five years.

The only difference is that they have now the new style of embroidery.

OUR ONE DOLLAR GLOVE is also the same reliable brand that we have sold for so many years.

4-button real Kid Gloves, extra quality, $1.25.

4-button real Kid Gloves, $1.50.

4-button real Kid Gloves, $1.75.

4-button real Kid Gloves, $2.00.
